This was adopted in March 2021, has also been reiterated in colleague training during September 2022.
1.3	The resident does not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must still be handled in line with the landlord's complaints policy.	Yes	Within our updated complaints policy and procedure this is clear, and this was also reiterated during colleague training in September 2022.
1.6	... if further enquiries are needed to resolve the matter, or if the resident requests it, the issue must be logged as a complaint.	Yes	Within our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy and procedure this is clear, and this was also reiterated during colleague training in September 2022.

1.4	Landlords should recognise the difference between a service request , where a resident may be unhappy with a situation that they wish to have rectified, and a complaint about the service they have/have not received.	Yes	Definitions of Service Requests and Make It Right are provided within our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy and procedure and for customers in our customer leaflet and video. Our systems are also designed to record the difference between these.
1.5	Survey feedback may not necessarily need to be treated as a complaint, though, where possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue their dissatisfaction as a complaint if they wish to. Mandatory 'must' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
2.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which residents can make a complaint such as in person, over the telephone, in writing, by email and digitally. While the Ombudsman recognises that it may not be feasible for a landlord to use all of the potential channels, there must be more than one route of access into the complaints system.	Yes	Our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy and procedure, plus customer leaflet and video all illustrates all the various channels open to customers to make a complaint. This does include in person, telephone, in writing and by email.
2.3	Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the number of stages involved, what will happen at each stage and the timeframes for responding.	Yes	Our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy is available online or in print on request. We also provide a complaints leaflet to explain the policy in simpler terms, and this is also available in a plain text version. We have an audio-visual version. All definitions, the stages and how they work, how customers transition between stages and all timeframes are included. We also have a simple infographic for customers to simplify the process and stages.

2.4	Landlord websites, if they exist, must include information on how to raise a complaint. The complaints policy and process must be easy to find on the website.	Yes	We have a dedicated section on our website for complaints. This includes our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy, customer leaflet, infographic and video to explain how it works. This is easily accessible through a search plus we publish a quick link to this page on our letters.
2.5	Landlords must comply with the Equality Act 2010 and may need to adapt normal policies, procedures, or processes to accommodate an individual's needs. Landlords must satisfy themselves that their policy sets out how they will respond to reasonable adjustments requests in line with the Equality Act and that complaints handlers have had appropriate training to deal with such requests.	Yes	Our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy and procedure have dedicated sections to Equality and Diversity. To support the individual assessment of a customer's needs, it also presents a non-exhaustive list of reasonable adjustment options which could be considered. Complaint handlers training in September 2022 covered our policy.
2.6	Landlords must publicise the complaints policy and process, the Complaint Handling Code and the Housing Ombudsman Scheme in leaflets, posters, newsletters, online and as part of regular correspondence with residents.	Yes	We promote our complaint policy, the code and ombudsman through our customer magazine, customer email and website. We also offer a leaflet, infographic and audio video.
2.7	Landlords must provide residents with contact information for the Ombudsman as part of its regular correspondence with residents.	Yes	Ombudsman details are provided in stage 1 and stage 2 response letters, in our customer leaflet and video and on our website.
2.8	Landlords must provide early advice to residents regarding their right to access the Housing Ombudsman Service throughout their complaint, not only when the landlord's complaints process is exhausted.	Yes	Our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy and procedure clearly lays this out, as does our complaint leaflet, video and infographic. We also provide Ombudsman details in stage 1 and stage 2 response letters and the customer's right to access the Ombudsman service throughout.

2.2	Where a landlord has set up channels to communicate with its residents via social media, then it should expect to receive complaints via those channels. Yes	Our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy and procedure confirms we accept complaints from social media, using Twitter Direct Message and Facebook Messenger. Using direct messaging ensures confidentiality and privacy. These are routed into our Customer Relationship team who handle as we would any other complaint.

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations

Section 4 - Complaint handling principles

Mandatory 'must' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
4.1	Any decision to try and resolve a concern must be taken in agreement with the resident and a landlord's audit trail/records should be able to demonstrate this. Landlords must ensure that efforts to resolve a resident's concerns do not obstruct access to the complaints procedure or result in any unreasonable delay. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as 'stage 0' or 'pre-complaint stage') as this causes unnecessary confusion for residents. When a complaint is made, it must be acknowledged and logged at stage one of the complaints procedure within five days of receipt.	Yes	Karbon seek to understand the outcome a customer is looking for and work with them to find a mutually agreeable solution. During stage 2 our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy and procedure also formally includes a question seeking the customer's desire outcome and a discussion prior to the investigation. Our systems are designed to capture this information and guide colleagues through the timelines. We do not have pre complaint stage, whilst we have a Make it Right - which is our fast, informal resolution process outside of the complaint process. Our policy and procedures aim to acknowledge stage one complaints in one working day – whilst no longer than 5 working days.
4.2	Within the complaint acknowledgement, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification and the full definition agreed between both parties.	Yes	Our complaints handling system, has letter templates. The acknowledgement template includes a Complaint summary. If this is unclear, we seek further clarification. At stage 2 we also provide the customer with questions to clarify what they are unhappy with, the reason and what they would like us to do. This is also logged in our complaint system.
4.6	A complaint investigation must be conducted in an impartial manner.	Yes	Our policy and procedure outline how the investigation is impartial, e.g., case handlers would not investigate a complaint about themselves or hear both stage 1 and 2.
4.7	The complaint handler must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> deal with complaints on their merits act independently and have an open mind take measures to address any actual or perceived conflict of interest consider all information and evidence carefully keep the complaint confidential as far as possible, with information only disclosed if necessary to properly investigate the matter. 	Yes	Our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions procedure outlines the various role of colleagues which are involved in complaints. Supporting the best practice outlined here.

4.11	Landlords must adhere to any reasonable arrangements agreed with residents in terms of frequency and method of communication	Yes	We use a customer's preferred method of communication. We also share how we will communicate with them and when asked we will adapt. Our policy and procedure outlines examples of how we might adapt to suit customer's needs.
4.12	The resident, and if applicable any staff member who is the subject of the complaint, must also be given a fair chance to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • set out their position • comment on any adverse findings before a final decision is made. 	Yes	Case handlers discuss with a customer the nature of their complaint at stage 1. A conversation is requested with the customer in stage 2 to allow them to share their position in person before the investigation. Where a complaint involves a colleague, interviews are conducted to present their position and offer further information, after which findings are shared.
4.13	A landlord must include in its complaints policy its timescales for a resident to request escalation of a complaint	Yes	Within our policy we advise customers they have 10 working days to escalate to stage 2. We also share this in stage 1 response letter and in our complaint leaflet and video.
4.14	A landlord must not unreasonably refuse to escalate a complaint through all stages of the complaints procedure and must have clear and valid reasons for taking that course of action. Reasons for declining to escalate a complaint must be clearly set out in a landlord's complaints policy and must be the same as the reasons for not accepting a complaint.	Yes	We ask customers to answer 3 escalation questions before escalating to stage 2. If they do not answer the questions, we would conduct this on the information available. If we were to refuse to escalate, we would explain in writing, including guidance on next steps. We also articulate in our policy where we would not accept a complaint such as matter being dealt with through legal action.
4.15	A full record must be kept of the complaint, any review and the outcomes at each stage. This must include the original complaint and the date received, all correspondence with the resident, correspondence with other parties and any reports or surveys prepared.	Yes	All complaint information is recorded in one place on our complaint system.

Yes	We endeavour to complete a complaint investigation within 5 working days where possible, even though Ombudsman guidelines stipulate 10 working days and 20 working days for stage 1 and stage 2 complaints respectively.
4.5	Landlords should give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord where this is reasonable.	Yes	This is within our Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions policy and reflected in the customer leaflet and video.

4.9	Communication with the resident should not generally identify individual members of staff or contractors.	Yes	Where this is appropriate, we'll name an individual, perhaps in naming who may be visiting the customer. However, we would not name people when it's not relevant or appropriate, such where the complaint is about this individual.
4.10	Landlords should keep residents regularly updated about the progress of the investigation.	Yes	Our policy and process support this behaviour. Complaint handlers provide contact details so they may be contacted during the complaint. Handlers also let customers know when they will next update them.
4.16	Landlords should seek feedback from residents in relation to the landlord's complaint handling as part of the drive to encourage a positive complaint and learning culture.	Yes	In our Tenant Satisfaction Survey and ICS survey, we ask customers about their satisfaction with our complaint service. This information is shared with colleagues and in team meetings we establish actions on these learnings.
4.17	Landlords should recognise the impact that being complained about can have on future service delivery. Landlords should ensure that staff are supported and engaged in the complaints process, including the learning that can be gained.	Yes	We have formal complaint case learning sessions which establish what we can share as good practice and developmental opportunities. We have wellbeing support available to all colleagues. Complaint learning is shared on our website and our intranet and shared in reports.
4.19	Any restrictions placed on a resident's contact due to unacceptable behaviour should be appropriate to their needs and should demonstrate regard for the provisions of the Equality Act 2010.	Yes	We completed an Equality Impact Assessment to ensure that in our Unacceptable Customer Behaviour policy, consideration will be given to all protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010 to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations.
